A MAN'S DAY OF THANKSGIVING

Is observed in different ways. Whatever the way a man spends this day he wants to be well dressed. We have the necessary outfitting for the occasion. Those who appreciate styles and quality and recognize values will be quick to take advantage of what we have to say about a few of our offerings.

Men's Clothing.

This Thanksgiving Season finds us in a position to show better, finer and cheaper clothing than ever before. We figure no greater profits on higher grade goods than we do on the cheaper ones. All is in proportion.

All wool men's suits, elegantly finished. People who have seen them think they are $15.00 suits until we disclosed the price. We have a large assortment of these suits at only $10

Two very fine lines of Men's Suits, extra fine grades, the kind with which we have been underselling others at $10 a suit, priced now at $7.50 and $8

Extra fine genuine tailored suits of the famous STEIN BLOCH make. You don't have to pay a tailor $30 to $35 to get a fit. We guarantee these goods in every respect. We fit any form. Prices $25, $20, $18, and 16.50

Men's Shirts.

Men's laundered bosom shirts, in neat stripes, cuffs attached, without collars, regular price $1.50, now 1.00

Broken assortment soft bosom shirts large sizes only, worth $1.25 and $1.50 each, reduced to 75c

Men's Hose.

Men's fast black, stainless tan and colored embroidered hose, very best values ever shown in the city, per pair 25c; per box of 6 pairs $1.25

Men's fancy silk embroidered fast colors black hose, very finest line of genuine Lisle thread. See window display, per pair 50c

Men's Shoes

Shoe stores and dry goods stores have long since decided between themselves as to who can sell the best shoes for the least money. The regular shoe store fellow lost. The department store can afford to make less profit. We have had our choice of fourteen lines and have selected the best ones from each. We guarantee every pair.

Men's kid lined velvet calf shoes, latest last, double extension sole, genuine welt, guaranteed in every particular. Why pay $5.00 or $4.50 for this same shoe when you can here for $4

Heavy box calf, extension sole, best shape, fine grade, usually $3.50 our price 2.50

Enamel calf, welted sole, new toe and best quality, the usual $5.00 shoe our price 4.50

Underwear.

Here's where we shine. Every man who has seen our stock of men's undergarments, agrees with us that it is the best lot of goods ever offered at the prices.

Extra heavy brown and cream fleece lined underwear worth $2.00 a suit, our price 1.25

Men's pure wool undergarments, in gray brown and grayish blue, all ways $1.50 per garment, price 1.00

Men's wool fleece lined undergarments extra good grades, usually $1 each, our price 75c

Men's gray cotton fleece lined shirts and drawers, best on earth for the money, per garment, only 50c

DECEMBER FIRST

McDermott House Removes.

In the month of March, 1897 Mrs. Bertha McDermott, a widow with two little girls to support and educate, started the McDermott House on the north side of the railroad in a ten room house. Coming from a family who were railroaders, the men who follow the railroad for an occupation made it their headquarters and as Mrs. McDermott prided herself upon her table, she naturally retained all her friends who have been loyal to the McDermott House since she opened its doors in 1897.

The house grew in popularity month by month until she was compelled to rent a cottage to accommodate the people, who poured in at every meal and with prosperity following her endeavors to please her patrons, she thought to increase her accommodations it would be a wise move to change her location to Chadbourne Street in the business section, in 1898, but after about a year and a half she concluded her place was near where she started in business, so she returned to the south side of the railroad.

For a long time it has been her wish to get back to a ten room house, so that she could give her personal attention to her table, as the table in a hotel constitutes the main thing.

The McDermott has always been noted for its good table, you have plenty to eat, it is well cooked, it is seasoned just right and the service is as clean as it can be, so it simply pleases everybody.

On December 1st the McDermott House will be once more on the north side of the railroad near Chadbourne street where Mrs. McDermott will give everything her personal attention and set a fine table and hopes to see all of her friends.

McDermott House across the railroad near Chadbourne St. Special attention given to travelers and ranchmen. The table is all that can be desired plenty to eat, food well seasoned and cooked just right, kindly patronize the McDermott House.

MRS. BERTHA McDERMOTT.

Respects to our People.

TO THE PRESS.
Dear Editor—We have been in this country several weeks and leave this week, and we wish to return our heartfelt thanks to the people of Tom Green county and San Angelo for their kindness to us. They are an open-hearted kind people—people to be appreciated. The business men are liberal and progressive and have been very kind indeed.

It was the fortune of this writer to attend the dinner of the W. O. W. Nov. 10th and must say it was a splendid affair. The ladies are undoubtedly good cooks and know just how to catch the appetites of the hungry choppers, and the gentlemen are not backward in entertaining their hosts. Everything was nicely arranged and splendidly conducted.

We made many acquaintances while here and we will ever remember them in our journey in life.

We have been in Tom Green county since Sept. 17th in the pecan gathering business and did fairly well. Our thanks are due Mr. J. E. Ponder, foreman of the Williams ranch, for the courtesy given us while here and we hope he will give his consent to share his kindness with a better half soon.

With kindest respects

Your truly,

W. J. MILLICAN AND OTHERS

Important and True.

There is an organization in New York called Tammany. There is a Dry Goods Store in San Angelo, Texas, selling goods at.....

Walk Over Prices.

Both are known all over the world, but for different reasons. Tammany gets turned down some times, but this store does not. Because we sell good goods, goods that wear well, are honest, and never fail to give satisfaction. I offer you an extraordinary value, so long as they last, in men's underwear.

50 dozen men's heavy fleece lined Shirts and Drawers, sizes 34 to 46, worth $1.00 suit, on sale at 75c
Won't last long at this price.

A Wedding.

On Tuesday, Nov. 19, at the Court House, Miss Laura Herring, daughter of Mrs. E. H. Herring and sister of Hubbard and Theodore Herring, was married to Mr. T. R. Wells, a prominent citizen of Stiles, Texas.

Miss Herring comes from an old Texas family, and moved from Waco to a ranch near Ben Fielden at first, but for the past two years the family has resided in San Angelo.

The Press extends its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wells and trusts that prosperity and happiness may always prevail at their hearthstone.

You will find it will be to your interest to figure with Wm. Cameron & Co. if you want a bill of lumber as they carry the best stock in the city and meet all prices.

J. T. Tisdale, a prominent sheepman from Ft. McKavett, was in on Tuesday for a load of supplies.

A Fine Office.

The Press in the interest of the citizens of San Angelo of a progressive spirit who are anxious to see it move ahead steadily to a great city, visited the office of Dr. Buchanan, who makes a specialty of treating throat and eye diseases, and found it fitted up with all the modern appliances which are necessary for an up-to-date surgeon.

The rooms are well furnished and the Doctor looked happy and said that the people were dropping in right along, so it is evident he is able at any time to make his residence on easy street, as he is the right man in the right place.
